

CHRISTINA THIELST

Continuity of Operations Planning

Preparing for business disruptions due to disasters or other emergency situations

Christina is a former hospital administrator and experienced risk manager and safety officer. She has created continuity of operations plans and conducted disaster planning activities across the Central Coast. She is available to assist businesses and their employees

- Understand Risks and Hazard Vulnerability
- Identify Essential Services
- Assess State of Readiness
 - Communications
 - Resources
 - Security
 - Employee Preparedness
- Create plan for improvement

To start the conversation in your business, watch the short video at this link!

